Brief Profile of Faculty in Less than 500 words

Dr. M. Madhavi is currently an Associate Professor in the Dept. of Zoology at Nizam College, Osmania University, Hyderabad Telangana State, India. She earned her Doctorate in Zoology from Osmania University. She authored several International and National publications in various journals and books. Her publications reflect her research interests in Entomology (Stored Product pest), Sericulture, Biodiversity, IPM and Environmental Sciences. She is serving as a life member in Indian Science Congress and also is the recipient of best paper award at National Conference in India. She is a Fellow of Environmental Biology-FAEB. Dr. Madhavi successfully completed a UGC minor research project and received UGC start up grant. She delivered number of guest lectures at some of the prestigious institutes in Telangana and Andhra Pradesh and gave oral presentations at various National and International Conferences across India. She regularly updated herself by attending various workshops and short term courses conducted by premier institutes of excellence across India. She has been mentoring her UG and PG students to instill in them a kind of confidence to pursue active and live internships and to continue their efforts to pursue their doctoral studies.
